THE QUEEN'S SIX

FROM WINDSOR WITH LOVE

"A Night of Exquisite A Cappella Harmony"

- The Royal Gazette

As seen on CBS Sunday Morning, the internationally renowned sextet, part of St. George's Choir residing within the walls of Windsor Castle, returns to Bermuda for an enchanting evening of music. Known for performing at both private and state occasions, often before the Royal Family, this talented group will captivate you with a diverse repertoire, ranging from the intricate polyphony of the Renaissance and playful madrigals to vibrant contemporary pop arrangements.
